

WILLINGNESS TO SERVE

Are you an actively engaged MCACHE member interested in participating in one of the following Committees?

Please let us know by submitting this completed form to mcache@achemail.net

- Committee On Bylaws – responsible for developing recommendations for improvements to the bylaws and maintaining updates and amendments as necessary.
- Committee on Career Development – responsible for developing programs and strategies to assist the MCACHE membership with career development and promote advancement within the ACHE as its primary responsibility.
- Committee on Communications – responsible for developing and implementing communication that effectively informs chapter members and the local healthcare community about upcoming chapter events and resources to support our membership through membership meetings, newsletters, website and press releases.
- Committee on Emerging Healthcare Leaders – responsible for creating opportunities within MCACHE to address the needs of emerging healthcare leaders, to volunteer in the communities our health systems serve, and to advance MCACHE through collaboration.
- Committee on Membership – responsible for developing strategies for increasing MCACHE membership growth and retention.
- Committee on MCACHE Programs - responsible for planning, staging and evaluating all membership educational and networking programs, including quarterly programs as well as working with the ACHE to bring relevant educational programs to the local area.
- Committee on Student Activities – responsible for developing programming to interest health services management students and faculty in the activities of ACHE and MCACHE, including shadowing programs and scholarship assistance to attend ACHE Congress.
- Committee on Sponsorships - responsible for identifying and securing corporate financial sponsorships for MCACHE and its Activities. Developing and maintaining relationships with organizations to to secure financial support to enhance the organization’s brand visibility within MCACHE is also essential.

Name:
Title:
Organization:
Address:
City, State, Zip:
Phone:
Email:	